

Deutsche Telekom revenue dips in Germany, achieves gains in US

May 9, 2019

0

0

Deutsche Telekom today announced that it increased revenue, EBITDA and Capex in the first quarter of 2019.

Deutsche Telekom has reported revenue (down 1.1 percent), EBITDA of 6.461 billion euros (down 1.1 percent), and a spectrum of 3.682 billion euros (+19.1 percent).

Deutsche Telekom has generated revenue (down 1.1 percent) in Germany, 9.796 billion euros (down 1.1 percent).

TELECOMLEAD NEWSLETTER

Hey there!

Be sure to subscribe to our daily newsletter if you want more telecom news and analysis!

SUBSCRIBE!

States, 2.891 billion euros (+2.8 percent) in Europe and 1.63 billion euros (–2.1 percent) from Systems Solutions business.

Deutsche Telekom has total mobile phone subscriber base of 44.65 million in Germany, 81.3 million in the United States and 47.8 million in Europe.

“Deutsche Telekom has much more to offer than just our sensational success in the United States. We are seeing positive trends throughout the Group,” said Tim Hottges, CEO of Deutsche Telekom.

Capex

Capex excluding expenses for mobile spectrum stood at 3.7 billion euros, up 19.7 percent against the first quarter of 2018. This increase was attributable to the accelerated network build-out in the United States and further extensive investments to build out and modernize the network in Germany.

Deutsche Telekom said the number of customers with fiber-optic products rose by 688,000 in the quarter, reaching 12.9 million at the end of March, up 24 percent year-on-year.

Deutsche Telekom added 66,000 new customers to its total number to 3.4 million, an increase of 2 percent in March 2018.

0

0

This site uses cookies: Find out more

TELECOMLEAD NEWSLETTER

Hey there!

Be sure to subscribe to our daily newsletter if you want more telecom news and analysis!

SUBSCRIBE!